Philadelphia 3 7 1
New York 10 2 2

New York, Oct. 25.—The New York Giants defeated the Philadelphia Athletics in a thrilling game by a score of four to three in ten innings of play this afternoon. The Athletics' commanding lead of three runs was finally overcome in a desperate ninth inning rally by the Giants, who put two runs across the plate on two doubles and a single. The home team won in the tenth when Doyle doubled, was advanced to third on an attempted sacrifice, and then scored on a long fly by Merkle, which Marquard captured on the line.

By letting the ball drop to the ground it would have counted as a strike against the batter and the runners could not have advanced. Oldring was the home-run batter with two runs on ahead of him he hit a home run into the left field stand. The show unfeasted Marquard, who was in the box for the Giants, and he was taken out at the close of the third inning.

Ames, who relieved him, pitched wonderful ball and held the Athletics from scoring until the end of the seventh, when he was relieved to let Crandall bat for him.

The strain on the pitchers of both teams was apparent in the greater number of runs and hits, and in fact that both managers changed pitchers during the game. Marquard, who began for New York, gave way to Ames when the multitude of hits in the third inning made it apparent that he could not win, and Ames in turn was supplanted by Crandall in the eighth, when the latter was sent to bat in the hope of getting over a run. For Philadelphia, Coombs began in brilliant style, but as the game wore on it was evident that the pace was too hot for him, and after the Giants had tied the score on the ninth, Plank was sent in to relieve him. It was while Plank was on the mound that the winning run was sent over the plate for New York.

Baker, whose sensational hitting has featured the work of the Athletics so far, failed to repeat his performance today, though his fielding was of a high class order.

New York—Devore, H.; Doyle, 2h; Snodgrass, c; Murray, r; Merkle, b; Herzog, 3b; Fletcher, ss; Meyers, c; Marquard, p.

Philadelphia—Lord, 1h; Oldring, c; Collins, 2b; Baker, 3b; Murphy, r; Davis, b; Harry, ss; Lapp, c; Coombs, s.

Umpires: Klem and Brennan, National; Connally and Dineen, American leagues.

First Inning.

Philadelphia—Marquard used great speed and was inclined to be unsteady. Lord had three balls and two strikes when he drove a short liner to left on which Doyle made a wonderful short-stop catch. Oldring went out on a grounder to Doyle, who made a pretty play on the ball to Merkle. Oldring broke his bat in smashing the ball. Marquard seemed a little nervous and Meyers went down and pat him on the back. Collins was out on a fly to Snodgrass. No runs, no errors.

Second Inning.

New York—Devore drove the first ball pitched to Harry, who got his man kindly at first. Doyle hit a weak foul which Baker captured. Snodgrass was given a big cheer when he stepped to the plate. Snodgrass went out by the Baker-Davis route. Davis made a nice pickup of Baker's throw. No runs, no hits, no errors.

Third Inning.

Philadelphia—Baker got a big hand when he came to the plate. There was another cheer when Marquard fanned Baker. Marquard's speed was terrific. Murphy started sharp to left. Marquard almost pinched Murphy off first on a snap throw. The crowd jeered Umpire Dineen when he called Murphy safe. Davis fanned. Murphy tried to steal second but was out. Meyers to Doyle. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fourth Inning.

New York—Murray got no real score. He came fast ones and struck out. Merkle was another strikeout. Herzog bunted between Harry and Baker after Coombs had two strikes on him. Herzog stole second, the second stolen by the Giants in the series. Fletcher fanned and Coombs was cheered. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Fifth Inning.

Philadelphia—Barry went out on a grounder to Herzog, whose throw beat the runner several feet. Lapp singled over second, hitting a ball that was far over his head. Meyers had Lapp caught off first throw but Merkle dropped the ball. It was not an error for Merkle. Coombs hit a grounder to Herzog, who threw to Doyle but the Giant second baseman dropped the ball in his eagerness to make a double play. With man on first and second, Meyers went down and talked to Marquard. Lord sent a high fly to Doyle. Lapp, Coombs and Oldring scored on Oldring's home run drive into the left field stand. The crowd went wild and Philadelphia players shouted. Oldring's smash unseated Marquard and Collins crooked to first on four wide ones. Collins stole second. Meyers threw bad. Ames went out to warm up. Baker was out on a grounder to Merkle. 2 runs, 2 hits, 1 error.

Sixth Inning.

New York—Meyers rapped a single which bounded off Baker's legs. Becker was sent to bat in place of Marquard. Becker shot a liner to Harry, who tried to double Meyers off first but Davis dropped the ball. Under the rules of scoring Davis is not credited with an error. Devore struck out. Meyers was out attempting to steal. Lapp to Collins. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Seventh Inning.

Philadelphia—The crowd yelled when Ames carried the first ball for a strike. Murphy sent up a high foul which landed in Meyer's mitt. Davis was out when Merkle took his grounder and ran to first.
